The Inevitable Fate of Slavery

The power of this monstrous libel on republican institutions is gone Beyond resurrection it has buried itself in the pit dug by its own infamy In attempting to gain supreme power, and to control the nation for its own purposes, it has achieved destruction It sought to stab the Union, but it has killed itself. This is so apparent, that the man who does not believe it, is a fanatic or a fool Even its apologists at the North have learned to abuse and to curse it, while those who lived upon it at the South acknowledge that the war has made it worthless forever The value of a negro now in Richmond is less than his wages for a year, and there is abundant proof that many of those who once claimed Slavery as their highest blessing, and the strength of their prosperity, now accept its overthrow, as a harbinger of future advantage A recently published letter from a prominent citizen of Georgia says,

> I am fully satisfied that Slavery is done in this country, and am not much sorry for it, if we could only have peace and quiet the remainder of our lives The Legislature of Georgia has passed a militia act requiring all men to be enrolled between the ages of sixteen and sixty, to be turned over to the Confederate Government on a call from the President So you see, after being robbed of everything we have made our negroes all gone, they put all the men in the army, and leave our wives and children to starve under the name of freedom for our homes and firesides, is a rich idea Captain ——, John ——, and old ——, will be the only men left in the —th district, and not one of them able to cut wood or make a fire. This looks like 'getting our rights in the territories"

Beyond all question, the release of the South from the influence of Slavery will prove the means of its grandest social, pecuniary and political advancement Under the the inspiring influence of free labor and free ideas, its people will possess a prosperity of which they never before dreamed Its abounding resources will be rapidly developed, and its ransomed and restored vitality,—as the home of freedom,—will make it in the future, the glory, instead of being as in the past the shame of a republic, which proudly boasted of its free institutions, even while it held four millions in base and cruel bondage.

Is OREGON IN THAT PLOT?—A peace correspondent of a Democratic paper in San Francisco, says he can and ' shall unfold a grand conspiracy on foot at the East as well as in California, to so stock the Chicago [Democratic] Convention as to compel the nomination of McClellan, Grant, or some other 'War Democrat' (?) upon the platform of a 'more vigorous prosecution of the war,' or else break up the Convention in a row" It would look funny to see Stark and McMillan engaged in that sort of a scheme, and yet it is possible that they may go to Chicago just for the sake of getting up some such preposterous plan. The former as everybody knows, can do most wonderful ' ground and lofty tumbling," while if there can be any thing which the other will not do when the Democratic party requires a new phase in his political consistency will be made manifest

THE FIRST RECONSTRUCTED STATE—Louisiana is the first of the Rebel States which has fully thrown off the yoke of confederated secession, and been completely restored to its place among the members of the Union Her new chief magistrate, Gov Hahn, has been cordially recognized by the President as the legitimate civil executive and under her new constitution by which slavery is to be utterly abolished, all the machinery of the State Government will be speedily put in motion The judicious and patriotic management of General Banks has mainly brought about this most desirable result, and will greatly tend to increase his large reputation for wisdom and experience in the successful administration of public affairs

WONDERFUL CHANGE —Yesterday was the anniversary of the massacre of Massachusetts soldiers, by a mob in the streets of Baltimore on the 19th of April 1861 Three short years have passed and Baltimore today now is the most thoroughly [illegible] in the Union Negroes are recruited there by thousands for the service of the Government wearing the uniform of liberty they march fearlessly and safely through its streets "shouting the battle cry of freedom" The sun has risen indeed, and its mild and benign radiance has made what was a den of wild beasts, the home of enlightened refinement and progress.

Letter from Placerville

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT]

PLACERVILLE Boise Co I T,
April 8th, 1864

I have been in this place since last Saturday and have been enabled by observation to qualify myself to speak of our prospects in the future

THE MINES

Promise to be as highly remunerative as ever and the character of the winter has been such as to justify me in saying that the supply of water this year will far exceed that of last True, there has not been so deep a snow on the ground as last year, but the quality has been so different that it more than compensates in the way of water Considerable snow has fallen since my arrival and it is still snowing more or less Many of the miners have got to work on their side hill and small gulch claims and as far as I have heard are doing well The creeks are filled up by the flow of waters, and mining in them will have to be deferred until the waters subside Some claims have been sadly ruined by filling up and it is a question with the miners whether or not they will re open them

QUARTZ LODES

The quartz men have exhibited more than usual activity the past winter and many tunnels bear witness to their industry A party of miners from Colorado Territory, have run a tunnel into what they call Gold Hill, but which is nothing more than the mountain through which the Pioneer Lode runs At a distance of 160 feet from the mouth of the tunnel they have struck a well defined lode of quartz, about four or five feet wide which promises an average of $1 000 to the ton Other parties have run a tunnel parallel with the ground claimed by the Columbia Company of your city and have found rock similar to and equally as good as the Gold Hill It is the settled opinion of all parties cognizant of such matters that the Web foot Lode is the real Columbia, and if so the Web foot folks will be doomed to a disappointment of their golden dreams The Superintendent of the Columbia Company has broken ground for the Columbia Tunnel intending to run from a point below the Web foot Tunnel, so as to intersect it in case their lead is not found below. The Pioneer Company (old Pioneer ground) have commenced to run a tunnel into their ground to determine its richness at a depth below Other companies will soon get to work if the snow will favor us with its absence I almost omitted stating in this connection that the quality of the rock taken from the Gold Hill and Web foot claims is of a hard greyish quality, impregnated with sulphurets Very little gold can be seen, but upon application of the fire test the rock will almost coat itself Specimens of this rock, I opine, will soon be forwarded to your city by those interested

THE ROADS

From Umatilla City in, are good with the exception of the Blue mountains, where it was horrible when I crossed, and bid fair to become worse when the ice melted It snowed all the time I was crossing, and was as disagreeable as might be imagined, even to a Portlander

AUBURN

I visited this once flourishing town on my way in, and found it more dilapidated than I imagined Riding a distance of twenty miles through the once peopled valley of Powder river, I saw no human being but one, and he was the toll gate keeper, eight miles below Auburn Every house but about one in twenty in the town is vacant and gone to ruin, but few men are residing there and those few are on the sell, a bad omen, surely French Gulch, Poker Gulch and Five Bit Gulch appear to be the cash diggings of the place, and I heard their names so often reiterated during my twenty hours stay that they now disturb my dreams. There are several hydraulics in French Gulch, and the companies there stand a chance of making something the coming season The Auburn canal company have a splendid supply of water and if customers can be found, the Canal company will have dividends to declare this winter Lloyd Brook Esq , of your city was in town when I left receiving consolation from the "Micawbers" who inhabit that burg, relative to the extent of mining country which that ditch which he is concerned in covers

MISCELLANEOUS

Considering the number of men who have started for this country, this place does not appear to be over crowded By some means, they have so equalized their distribution, that the unobserving person would not notice their presence In going over the mountains I met several going out manfully to prospect in this section

A new basin, supposed to be not second to this, has been discovered on the head waters of Gallatin Creek (a branch of Wood river) distant about 150 miles from this place Some men have worked there all winter, and the knowing ones who are in the secret have started from here this week In my next I will be most likely better able to inform you as regards the truth and richness of this new discovery

The ditch men are all by the ears, and law suit after lawsuit is bound to be the result to the great satisfaction no doubt, of the legal fraternity who call themselves lawyers

The Nymphs du Pave gave a ball last night in town and the boys generally were round for the amusement One or two scrapes was the result coupled with the destruction of considerable glass ware, hurled at offending skulls

Provisions and the staple articles have become a drug in the market and are really not worth the freight One man bought a cargo of flour yesterday at 16 cents per pound—seven cents less than freight I predict this year will be death to merchants and their creditors also

CRAYON

HORRORS OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION THREATENED —The Conservatives of North Carolina, remarks the Raleigh Standard, may perceive from the following from the Daily Confederate of February 22d what will be their fate and the fate of the country, if the counsels of that paper should be heeded and acted on at [illegible]

> There [illegible] not [illegible] of settlement [illegible] so long [illegible] fall its [illegible] than [illegible] within the bor[illegible] and so in the [illegible] established [illegible] and [illegible] loading agitators are [illegible] by [illegible] ment [illegible] our ser vice—if the [illegible] obliged [illegible] law, the [illegible] agitators who fear [illegible] to be resisted —that forbearance [illegible] a virtue —that North Carolina [illegible] traitors from the arch [illegible] will be as [illegible] sympathy with [illegible] and [illegible] to the way of the service by imposing [illegible] necessary restraints upon its [illegible]

Such a course of policy as that above advised by the Confederate would plunge the State at once into all the horrors of a French Revolution.

FROM BOISE —We clip the following items from a late number of the Boise News

Owyhee specimens brought in by Mr Wilson last week give additional proof of the richness of that country The Green Yankee and Whisky ledges are among those that are regarded as very valuable Some of the recent discoveries in that section, measure from 40 to 45 feet between the casings, and increase as they descend into the earth as low as they have prospected, say from 15 to 25 feet We know of no lodes in the Territory approximating in magnitude these gigantic ribs of the world By the way, the old planet is likely to get many a dig in the ribs before the summer is ended

The Landon Lode, some two or three miles from this place in a north easterly direction is proving itself to be one of the richest ledges in the country Mr Landon has furnished us a specimen of the rock after submitting it to the action of fire in order to render it easy to crush and all who have examined it pronounce it as fine a specimen as they ever saw, globules of gold stand out all over it and on breaking it the same evidences of immense richness present themselves throughout the whole mass The owners are only prospecting it as yet and in order to do so as thoroughly as possible they have rigged sledge hammers and spring poles, and have in this way crushed twelve sacks of rock containing each in the neighborhood of 100 pounds and as the result have cleaned up $277 80, or $23 15 to the sack It takes a man about three days in this manner after burning the rock, to pulverize two sack fulls Some selected rock from this ledge crushed in a mortar made of a quicksilver flask yielded a dollar to the pound We will take pleasure in exhibiting the specimen furnished us to those who are skeptical as to the richness of the Landon lead, that they may be convinced

GEN GRANT —While recently in Washington, Mr Lincoln formally presented to him his commission as Lieutenant General the ceremony took place at the White House, in presence of the Cabinet and several military officers of high rank The President addressed him thus

> General Grant In consequence of the nation's appreciation of what you have done and its reliance upon you for what remains to be done in the existing great struggle you are now presented with this commission, constituting you Lieutenant General in the army of the United States With this high honor devolves upon you also a corresponding responsibility As the country trusts you under God it will sustain you I scarcely need to add that with what I here speak for the nation, goes my own hearty concurrence

To which Gen Grant replied as follows

> Mr President I accept this commission with gratitude for the high honor conferred. With the aid of the noble armies who have fought on so many fields for our common country it will be my earnest endeavor not to disappoint your expectations I feel the full weight of the responsibilities devolving upon me, and I know that if they are met it will be due to those armies and above all to the favor of that Providence which leads both nations and men

The President then introduced the General to all the members of the Cabinet, after which the company was seated, and about half an hour was spent in social conversation

LATE WASHINGTON ITEMS —A telegram dated Washington, March 11th, to the St Louis Democrat says:

It is understood that Gen Grant desires to reorganize the armies, both here and in the West and that he has said that if permitted to have his own way, he could soon suppress McClellanism in the Potomac army, which he regarded as the chief obstacle to its success

The publication of Chase's letter to Allen, asking the withdrawal of his name from the Presidential discussions, forms the great topic of conversation and speculation in all circles Mr. Chase receives the heartiest praise on all hands both from Lincoln organs and others Many insist that this brings forward Fremont with great prominence, others say that Butler will now come in Democratic papers generally insist that the contest lies between Lincoln and Fremont

A letter from the President of the School Trustees of this city to Speaker Colfax relative to colored schools here and funds for their support, discloses the fact that besides schools supported by taxation upon property of colored men, there are eight evening schools taught gratuitously by the Government employees, and crowded with the finest and most eager learners, mostly adults, and many of them freedmen who have congregated here from all points in the slave States reached by our arms

NEW YORK SANITARY FAIR —The Fair at New York on the 28th ult, was to be on a grand scale The dry goods dealers had on the 6th contributed $75,000 worth of goods A letter to the San Francisco Call of that date says

"Mr. Bonner, of the Ledger, who owns two very fast horses, has made a present of one to the Fair The horse is to be sold at auction, and you may fancy what it will bring, when Bonner guarantees that it will trot its mile in 2 27, and offers to give eight thousand dollars for any horse that will do the same time About eighty thousand square feet of space is now to be devoted to our Fair, the new Twenty second Regiment Armory, as well as other buildings, being added to the site originally procured As the Brooklyn Fair which closed last night, brought three hundred and thirty thousand dollars, nothing short of seven hundred thousand will do for New York Perhaps we can make it a million If our three hundred churches really go to work and throw in their contributions we can easily do it"

AN EXPANSION OF CURRENCY AND THE INFLATION OF PRICES —There is a gradual rise in the prices of the country, which many writers charge to the expansion of currency. It is noted that our imports now largely exceed our exports and that the inevitable flow of the gold to Europe to pay the deficiency will cause a rise in gold The whole question is closely studied, it is presumed by political economists and this is not the place or the occasion to discuss its bearings on the price of gold But it seems quite clear that speculators will take advantage of the opportunity to pile on the prices immensely Already the hotel keepers of New York have decided to advance the price of board to $3 50 per day and a New York paper says that all the landlords will follow the example of Wm B Astor, and increase rents about 33 per cent Staple groceries and many other articles of prime necessity have advanced in the same proportion In the West the same rule holds good In St Louis houses are in great demand, and buildings which in 1860 rented for $400 per year are now rented easily at $1000 Labor of all kinds has advanced in price—the printers making the jump from 25 to 50 cents per 1000 ems, and they are said to be contemplating a strike for another ten cents Many families who can afford it are laying in supplies for a couple of years ahead, in order to save money, and among all classes there is a well defined fear that the cost of living during the present year will nearly double.

THE HEBREW PASSOVER —This evening commences the celebration of the Hebrew Passover, a Biblical festival instituted in commemoration of the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt, the land of bondage The Hebrew name for the festival is Pasah [illegible] ping over, passing by,' hence, sparing bearing the name in reference to the angel of Death, a poetic expression for death, as the Hebrew call all means and instrumentalities angels.

• He makes the winds His angels the lambent fire His minister ng angels —[illegible] 4

The festival is observed for seven days by abstaining on the first and last day from laborious work The origin of the institution bore political emancipation in a manner prepared through a struggle similar to that which our country has now to go through, and the deliverance being from Egyptian servitude to self government and independence, the passover is to the Hebrew people what the Fourth of July is to the people of the United States and as such a festival the Hebrew people observe it, but with the difference that instead of one day they observe seven days—seven being a number of symbolical importance—and instead of fire works, cannon and processions they recite extra prayers and thanksgivings, and during the whole week they eat unleavened bread, called in the Bible "bread of the humble, or of affliction" The Passover is a time for thanksgiving, hospitality and a remembrance of the humble state of the nation in the land of Egypt

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE —On the 15th of March, Mr. Wm Curry, of the firm of Andrews & Curry, LeGrande, Baker County, Oregon, arrived in this city by the steamer Wilson G Hunt, on a tour of business He stopped at the Western Hotel, and remained until the 17th, when he paid his bill, apparently intending to return to the upper country again, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Mr Andrews, his partner and brother in law, apprehensive that something was wrong, inasmuch as he did not return to LeGrande, or write about business matters, left his home in search of the missing partner Upon arriving at Umatilla City he learned that Mr Curry had paid French & Gilman of the Dalles $1,000 on account, and at the Dalles he found the horse, saddle, bridle and cantenas, as they had been left by Mr Curry, to await his return from Portland Pursuing his investigations, Mr Andrews arrived in this city on Monday evening where he finds the matter enveloped in mystery The missing man was known to be in possession of considerable money, and from his integrity of purpose the only supposition seems to be that he has been made way with for his money, by some unaccountable means. The case is left to good hands, and for the sake of humanity we trust they will succeed in ferreting it out

SUPERANNUATED —The Oregon Steam Navigation Company have commenced the work of removing machinery from their old steamers, that are out of date and unfit for further service The Independence and the Multnomah are now receiving the "finishing" touches that will lay them up forever The former was built for a ferry boat, and afterwards was remodeled and used for carrying stock to the Cascades At the outbreak of the gold excitements in the upper country she did signal service, and earned many a round dollar for her owners The latter was made in the Atlantic States, and when she first appeared in our waters, during the year 1853, was set up and run above the Falls of the Willamette She has, like most other crafts on this coast been "handed around" considerably, and at last she "will settle down" upon the grounds of the Navigation Company's bone yard, below this city These should not be permitted to pass into oblivion without a tribute to the valuable services they did in their day—their duties were amply performed in early times, so good bye venerable relics

THE RUSH —To take a look at things in the vicinity of the wharves yesterday one would not suppose that the rush was over with by any means Besides the jam of freight for the mines, heavy wagons and teams were numerous, awaiting shipment, some of which were from a long distance California is paying a liberal tribute to our upper country

BIRDS FOR THE SANDWICH ISLANDS —The King of the Sandwich Islands has sent an order to Mr Richards of San Francisco for birds of varieties that do not exist there, which will be useful for destroying worms and insects, and Messrs Richards & McCraken advertise for a few pairs of Robins for the purpose of shipping

RECORDER'S COURT —Recorder McCoy presided at the case of a trial for disorderly conduct yesterday, wherein George H Johnson and Poleto Mino were each fined, and in default sent to the city jail for a term of three days

RELEASED —The clipper schooner Jenny Jones was released from the custody of the United States Marshal yesterday, upon a bond of $2,500 She will now take on freight for Victoria, and leave on Friday

NEW ARRANGEMENT —The mail from the south arrived on a coach last evening, and the steamer Senator will hereafter leave Oregon City at 1 o'clock P M , on the return trip for Portland

ELECTION OF A QUEEN —The coming May Day festival is to be observed with becoming respect by the scholars of the Academy and Seminary, and the ' Queen" was elected last evening

TIME OF DEPARTURE—The steamship Brother Jonathan will leave for San Francisco this evening at six o'clock, going direct.

THE HEBREW PASSOVER. — This evening commences the celebration of the Hebrew Passover, a Biblical Festival instituted in commemoration of the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt, the land of bondage. The Hebrew name for the festival is Pas-sah: "stepping over, passing by;" hence, sparing; bearing the name in reference to the angel of Death, a poetic expression for death, as the Hebrew call all means and instrumentalities angels:

"He makes the winds His angels, the lambent fire His ministering angels."—Psalms 104: 4.

The festival is observed for seven days by abstaining on the first and last day from laborious work. The origin of the institution being political emancipation, in a manner prepared through a struggle similar to that which our country has now to go through, and the deliverance being from Egyptian servitude to self-government and independence, the passover is to the Hebrew people what the Fourth of July is to the people of the United States, and as such a festival the Hebrew people observe it, but with the difference that instead of one day they observe seven days—seven being a number of symbolical importance—and instead of fire-works, cannon and processions, they recite extra prayers and thanksgivings, and during the whole week they eat unleavened bread, called in the Bible: "bread of the humble, or of affliction." The Passover is a time for thanksgiving, hospitality, and a remembrance of the humble state of the nation in the land of Egypt.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—On the 15th of March, Mr. Wm. Curry, of the firm of Andrews & Curry, LeGrande, Baker County, Oregon, arrived in this city by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, on a tour of business. He stopped at the Western Hotel, and remained until the 17th, when he paid his bill, apparently intending to return to the upper country again, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Mr. Andrews, his partner and brother-in-law, apprehensive that something was wrong, inasmuch as he did not return to LeGrande, or write about business matters, left his home in search of the missing partner. Upon arriving at Umatilla City he learned that Mr. Curry had paid French & Gilman of the Dalles $1,000 on account, and at the Dalles he found the horse, saddle, bridle and cantenas, as they had been left by Mr. Curry, to await his return from Portland. Pursuing his investigations, Mr. Andrews arrived in this city on Monday evening, where he finds the matter enveloped in mystery. The missing man was known to be in possession of considerable money, and from his integrity of purpose the only supposition seems to be that he has been made way with for his money, by some unaccountable means. The case is left to good hands, and for the sake of humanity we trust they will succeed in ferreting it out.

SUPERANNUATED.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company have commenced the work of removing machinery from their old steamers, that are out of date and unfit for further service. The Independence and the Multnomah are now receiving the "finishing" touches that will lay them up forever. The former was built for a ferry boat, and afterwards was remodeled and used for carrying stock to the Cascades. At the outbreak of the gold excitements in the upper country she did signal service, and earned many a round dollar for her owners. The latter was made in the Atlantic States, and when she first appeared in our waters, during the year 1853, was set up and run above the Falls of the Willamette. She has, like most other crafts on this coast, been "handed around" considerably, and at last she "will settle down" upon the grounds of the Navigation Company's bone yard, below this city. These should not be permitted to pass into oblivion without a tribute to the valuable services they did in their day—their duties were amply performed in early times, so good bye venerable relics.

THE RUSH.—To take a look at things in the vicinity of the wharves yesterday one would not suppose that the rush was over with by any means. Besides the jam of freight for the mines, heavy wagons and teams were numerous, awaiting shipment, some of which were from a long distance. California is paying a liberal tribute to our upper country.

BIRDS FOR THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The King of the Sandwich Islands has sent an order to Mr. Richards of San Francisco, for birds of varieties that do not exist there, which will be useful for destroying worms and insects, and Messrs. Richards & McCraken advertise for a few pairs of Robins for the purpose of shipping.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Recorder McCoy presided at the case of a trial for disorderly conduct yesterday, wherein George H. Johnson and Poleto Mino were each fined, and in default sent to the city jail for a term of three days.

RELEASED.—The clipper schooner Jenny Jones was released from the custody of the United States Marshal yesterday, upon a bond of $2,500. She will now take on freight for Victoria, and leave on Friday.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—The mail from the south arrived on a coach last evening, and the steamer Senator will hereafter leave Oregon City at 1 o'clock P. M. on the return trip for Portland.

ELECTION OF A QUEEN.—The coming May Day festival is to be observed with becoming respect by the scholars of the Academy and Seminary, and the "Queen" was elected last evening.

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—The steamship Brother Jonathan will leave for San Francisco this evening at six o'clock, going direct.

BOUND TO THE EAST.—By the Brother Jonathan, which leaves to-night, a large number of passengers will take their departure. Among them are Messrs. J. Failing, Hiram Smith, F. Charman and J. W. Souther, who are delegates to the Baltimore Convention, in which we doubt not, they will do their duty intelligently and faithfully. Col. Rector, formerly Superintendent of Indian Affairs, goes with them, and proposes also to be at the Convention. We are glad to learn that he intends to make arrangements for procuring machinery for the manufacture of flax in this State. We hope that he may be successful in this project, as he was in regard to his efforts to build the Salem Woolen Factory, the first machinery for which was obtained by him. It is not unlikely that he will discover the cause of his removal last year from office, it being now well understood that it was effected at Senatorial instigation, for reasons having nothing to do with the alleged financial transactions occurring subsequently which made some controversy, though the facts developed in the conclusion of the matter, proved his entire innocence of any fraud. Mr. Joseph Knott, of this city, also visits the States, after an absence of many years. We hope all these gentlemen, and the numerous companions of their voyage, will enjoy a healthy trip, and by speaking good and earnest words for Oregon come back with crowds of friends to fill the State with an energetic and thriving population.

CLEARED.—The steamer Vancouver, Capt. Turnbull, took the schooner Ellen in tow yesterday, intending to leave her on the Columbia river, where the first favorable wind will be used to make the run to Fort Defiance.

PLENTY OF GOOD READING.—The Franklin Book Store has large piles of late periodicals, received by mail and steamer. Nobody need be ignorant with such a chance to gain intelligence.

A FULL SUPPLY.—We received a good gift from Chas. Barrett yesterday, whose counters are covered with the latest intelligence in every shape. All that news dealers have can be found there.

THE MAIL SERVICE.—A very important bill affecting the mail service of the country has passed the lower branch of Congress, and will doubtless go through the Senate. The bill provides that all United States merchant vessels going to or returning from foreign ports, shall carry any mail matter which may be put on board by the United States Consuls. Also that the Postmaster General may make contracts to have the mail carried by sea by way of Panama and Nicaragua; and further, that newspapers may be transmitted by mail from a known office of publication to a bona fide subscriber not exceeding one copy to each subscriber. Thus it will be seen that if by any reason whatsoever, the overland mail fails to be carried, the Postmaster General can send it by sea as often as he can agree with the steamship company to make trips. I understand it is the intention of the Pacific Steamship Company to make trips as often as once a week, before long.—Cor. Virginia Union.

BEAUTIFUL.—Miles' make of Ladies' Serge Congress heel Gaiter Boots, Philadelphia make, are certainly the most elegant in the United States. The name will always be observed upon the sole of the shoe. Shelby has just received a few dozen pairs, expressed direct from the East. If in want of such goods call soon.

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS WHOLESALE.—For many years there has not been a wholesale furnishing store in San Francisco, and HEUSTON, HASTINGS & Co., seeing the wants of the trade, have opened a jobbing house on the corner of Battery and Pine, (their new building), where they will always keep a general assortment of Men's furnishing goods, trunks, valises and fine clothing at wholesale only.

Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society.—A Special Meeting of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Friday, April 22d, at 2 o'clock P. M. All members of the Society and friends of the cause are urgently requested to attend, as business of importance requires attention. Mrs. A. C. GIBBS, Sec'y.

STOP THAT COUGHING!
SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY YOU. YOU have tried every remedy but the right one; and that one is destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but
NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really what is claimed for it; namely, the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by the surprising curative powers of NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!
And with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the Greatest Panacea of the Age, for the healing of all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that
NEWELLS'
Pulmonary Syrup!
Has cured thousands, and it will cure YOU if you try it.
This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all poison or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

The Last Days of Thos Starr King

Mr. Swain of San Francisco, a member of Mr King's Society, and one of his most intimate friends, has just published an address, delivered to the Society giving some interesting details of the sickness and closing scenes of the life of his minister Our readers, we are sure, will be glad to see them, though a brief portion has already appeared in our columns

"I have no doubt that his constant studies and his anxieties and unrest here undermined his constitution, and, as the resolutions say, precipitated his death I can never forget the last time I saw him out of his own house, the Friday before he died He appeared much depressed in spirits—complained of aching bones and a sore throat and said that he felt like a sponge squeezed dry Not being well he was particularly sensitive that day, was unusually thoughtful and sad. When we parted, he expressed a fear that he would not be able to preach on Sunday, and felt deep regret at the thought, for he had made considerable preparation for the vesper service which he declared would be the richest of all, and then, he said he had several important notices to give—particularly the one in regard to the social gatherings on Wednesday, in which he took so deep an interest, and of the success of which he was very proud 'But,' said he as we separated, 'come around in the morning before you go down' He returned to his home never to leave it, save when his spirit took its flight to regions beyond the stars Morning came, and Mr. King was perceptibly worse He had changed materially, and I saw that he was a sick man I did not, however, appreciate the extent of his illness, until the following evening, Saturday He had invited two or three friends to his house to take a simple cup of tea and pass the evening—Finding himself unable to be personally present, he sent to me to request that I would join them at the table I knew that Mr King must indeed be very feeble to deprive himself of the pleasure of the society of his own invited guests and he was feeble.—While we were at supper a bridal party came unexpectedly to his house. Here his spirit of self-sacrifice shone out resplendently, for, although he was too much prostrated to see his personal friends, he yielded to the urgent solicitations of these strangers who he begged would excuse him, arose from what proved to be his death bed, dressed himself and came down the stairs to perform the marriage ceremony That wedding ought to be doubly sanctified to the bride and groom for the heroic spirit of kindness and generosity which prompted him, under such circumstances, to perform the ceremony—the last professional act of his life

After the ceremony, we met in the hall—He looked wretchedly He was on his way to bed, from which he was never again to rise Still he was cheerful, expressed his deep regret that he could no longer remain with his friends, and indulged in a few pleasantries before leaving

From that time the disease crept on with slow and steady pace On Wednesday, his physician, in view of the great value of his life to his family and the country, advised with some of his friends as to the propriety of a consultation It was then apparent that Mr King's life was in danger On Thursday, there seemed to be a change for the better, and it was evident the disease was mastered, but he was suffering from great physical prostration and exhaustion of the vital energies If the usual tone of his system could be restored and strength given him there would be no doubt of his recovery But this was not to be That evening, alarming symptoms manifested themselves He rallied, however, and passed a tolerably comfortable night, sleeping well and breathing with comparative ease We were all much encouraged, and believed the worst was passed It was only the calm which precedes the storm—a lull in the fury of the disease preparatory to a last desperate onset. For, on Friday morning, just before 6 o'clock while I was standing by the bedside with the physician who also had been with him all the night, a perceptible change took place in his appearance, which told too plainly that the time for parting had come—that the angel of death was there, and that our dearly loved pastor and friend would soon pass beyond the sightless verge of this land of tombs"

The scene that then followed no pen can describe—no imagination can conceive! Mr King had achieved many triumphs for us by his toils and his genius The time had now come for him to achieve the crowning triumph of all—a triumph of his religion—a triumph over death, and a vindication of his life and character.

Dr Eckel approached the bedside for the purpose of informing him that he could not long survive But Mr King who had been watching the progress of his disease with all the precision of a scientific observer, and all the coolness of a disinterested spectator, though not without solicitude, had discovered the change, and anticipated him by inquiring as to the character of this new symptom and whether he could survive it When told that he could not, there was not the slightest evidence of agitation He calmly and enquiringly looked into the doctor's face and asked how long he thought he could live, as if he desired to know as nearly as possible how much time was to be allowed him on earth to make the necessary preparation When told but half an hour, he immediately replied, 'I wish to make my will' Remembering that he had told me at some time that he had left a will in Boston I answered, 'Have you not a will already, Mr King?' He then promptly replied that his 'little boy was not then born'

Some little time was then consumed in preparing to write by his bedside while he was sinking rapidly I feared that his life would not be spared until he could sign the document But when the preparations were made the power of his will became manifest Then commenced a desperate struggle to sustain life until his temporal arrangements were completed, for, although he had not been able to speak louder than a whisper he now by a strong effort raised his voice to nearly its ordinary pitch and clearly and forcibly enunciated his wishes, saying no more than was necessary and leaving unsaid nothing I approached his bedside with the will in my hand that it might be read to him previous to signature He then apparently relapsed into a comatose state. I said, Mr King can you hear? He opened his eyes with a smile and said Read on! Turning his head a little to catch every word he answered at the end of the paragraph 'all right' And then the reading was concluded and he was asked if anything more was to be added he replied 'No it is just as I want it' Waiting a moment as if in thought he then said 'And that all other wills are hereby revoked, you know I have another will in Boston' We who had death staring us in the face had failed to detect this omission of so vital a clause He was more calm than any of us He was raised in bed, in order that he might sign the document With a look for his desk, he took the pen with a steady hand and deliberately dipped it in the ink, and to the astonishment of all, [illegible] wrote his name (which he often [illegible] could not easily write, surrounded by many difficulties) with a firmness and rapidity and ease not surpassed even by himself He looked carefully at the signature when he had punctuated it as usual reached the pen to me who was standing by, and laid down to die

Recovering in a minute from the exhaustion of the effort he began to bid farewell to those around him The scene was sublime beyond description A celestial smile played upon his features As one by one approached the bedside of the dying man he extended his hand to them heartily To one he said, 'Good bye, Colonel' and seizing him with both hands he added—'God bless you' To an attached domestic he said 'Good bye, Sarah—I thank you for all you have done for us' To the faithful nurse 'Good bye Kathleen—take good care of Freddie'

He appeared to have no thoughts for self, but was speaking words of cheerfulness and consolation to those around him to the last moment He whispered to his wife, 'Be sure and tell Dr Eckel I think he has done everything that a human agent could possibly do for me' He expressed to her his wishes as to the disposition of his manuscripts, and spoke freely with her upon all points in relation to the family, He said 'Do not weep for me I know it's right I wish I could make you feel so I wish I could describe my feelings. It is strange I feel all the privileges and greatness of the future' To his friend, Mr Low, he said, 'I see a great future before me It already looks grand, beautiful I am passing away fast My feelings are strange' The conditions and mysteries of the future state, had been a subject of passionate study and religious speculation for many years He knew that they were now all to be revealed to him in a few moments, and I am persuaded that his spirit soared exultant at the thought His wife asked him if he had any particular message for friends at home He replied, 'Tell them I went lovingly, trustfully and peacefully.' A few moments later he said as if dating his own death, 'To-day is the 4th of March, sad news will go over the wires to-day'

I approached his bedside—he extended his hand to me and said with a sweet smile playing upon his features, 'Good bye, Swain, keep my memory green I wish you to say to my Society, that it is my earnest desire that they pay the debt upon the church, and not leave the burden to be carried by my successor I had rather they would do this than erect a tomb-stone at my grave. Let the church, free of debt, be my monument I want no better Tell them these were my last words, and say good bye to all of them for me'

After this he seemed to be quiet a moment, as if sleeping. I spoke to him and said, 'Mr King, are you happy?' Turning his head and looking at me with his bright, full eyes, he answered, 'Yes, happy, resigned, trustful'

'The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want'

'He maketh me to lie down in green pastures He leadeth me beside the still waters'

'He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake'

Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me, Thy rod, and Thy staff, they comfort me'

'Thou preparest a table for me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest mine head with oil my cup runneth over'

'Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever'

If I had the tongue of an angel I could not depict the triumphant glory of the scene His voice was raised to a loud tone, and he lifted his hand and pointed his finger with that peculiar gesture characteristic of him in the pulpit He did not pronounce this Psalm in rhapsody—nothing of the kind—it was calmly and deliberately The Psalm is an expression of confidence in God's grace, and what more appropriate reply could be made to the inquiry if he was happy! It was a spontaneous and incidental outpouring

His charming little boy not quite two years of age, was brought to his bedside He saluted him by saying, 'Beautiful boy' and his last act was to throw a good bye kiss to him as he was taken from the room In a few moments he had passed away, like a child falling asleep, He said he had no pain whatever but continued to breathe slower and slower and without a pang or a struggle closed his eyes, and ceased to live on earth"

OVER THE MOUNTAINS —The Overland Press of Saturday last contains the following encouraging intelligence

From a private letter dated Washington, February 1[illegible], 1864 from a reliable source we are permitted to make the following extract in regard to a road across the Cascade mountains The last Legislature passed a memorial praying Congress for a grant of land in assistance to aid in constructing a road over these mountains the necessity of which every one feels, or complete the [illegible] already begun A copy of the memorial was immediately forwarded to the [illegible] and a scheme was devised [illegible] proper persons sought may be obtained [illegible] which the end fore the Military Committee [illegible] bill, then be was to be laid before Congress [illegible] of the House, with a favorable recommendation at an early day, hopes were entertained of its passage, and strong [illegible] It provided, in substance, that every alternate section, designated by even numbers, for a distance of three miles wide, on each side of said road, shall be granted to the Territory Should any of these sections be already disposed of, then other lands in lieu thereof, at a distance not to exceed fifteen miles from the road are given For a distance of sixty miles through the mountains, in lieu of the 180 sections along the road timber lands are granted to be selected in legal subdivisions on the west side of the mountains The western terminus is fixed at Walla Walla, thence [illegible] the Yakima valley and through the Cascade mountains by the most feasible pass to Puget Sound There will be thirty sections of land for every ten miles of road, for which a patent will issue as fast as the road is completed in ten mile sections The matter will be under the control of the Legislature Five years is allowed for the completion of the road but the Legislature can provide for its immediate construction if they choose All lands along the incomplete portions of the road revert to the United States unless it is completed entirely within five years If this bill becomes a law it is to be hoped the next Legislature will take such action as will insure its speedy completion of this thoroughfare [illegible] half of the time as limited shall have elapsed we will be in direct communication [illegible] with part of our own Territory but the vast and wealthy district adjacent.

There was a bazaar in Rochester N Y recently held by the ladies [illegible] whom wrote to Gen. Grant for a lock of his hair to be sent and sold at the [illegible] The General, of course, [illegible] and expressed his [illegible] demand that his [illegible] us it is, though [illegible] other cause is beginning [illegible] and there [illegible] passed' He replied [illegible] it in his heart to refuse [illegible] even though by granting [illegible] to the ladies of Rochester [illegible] or a boy" We hope the ladies won't follow the hint of his Rochester correspondent now, and cut all the hair off the [illegible]

CELEBRATED

CONCLUSIVE PROOF
OF THE EFFICACY OF HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS!

PROTECTIVE MEDICATION

Great Truths
—IN—
SMALL COMPASS:

WHAT THE BITTERS ARE.

A pure [illegible] Vegetable Balm
[illegible] nerves to calm,
[illegible] the system from Miasma's bane
Re[illegible] Nature and the strength sustain

THEIR INGREDIENTS.

Juices of [illegible] roots barks of virtues rare,
By chem[illegible] expressed with patient care,
A[illegible] of the soundest rye—
Purest of all [illegible] to stimulate

RESULTS OF THEIR USE.

Digestion [illegible] appetite revives,
The [illegible] thrives,
Dyspepsia vanishes with all its throes
And peaceful sleep succeeds disturbed repose

EFFECTS ON THE LIVER.

The bilious [illegible] languid [illegible] pale,
[illegible] for years [illegible] without avail
[illegible] in the BITTERS all he asks or needs,
And lives to smile at doctors and their creeds.

OPERATION ON THE BOWELS.

Relaxed constricted or the seat of pain,
These organs should not for one day remain
The cause of each extreme you can expel—
The BITTERS tone and regulate as well

EFFECT ON THE DEBILITATED.

The flaccid muscles firmness soon acquire,
The frame gains flesh the eye resumes its fire,
Strength to the limbs hope to the heart returns,
Till staff and crutch the convalescent spurns

BROKEN CONSTITUTION.

The constitution tried by pain or care,
Or wild indulgence is not repair,
The genial Tonic as the healthful dews
Quickens parched herbs its wasted power renews.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

Damp, cold exposure to the malarious fog,
Brings on of ills a fearful catalogue,
But intermittents, whatsoe'er their kind,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS scatter to the wind

SICK HEADACHE.

This torment dire, that all enjoyment kills,
Yields not to pungent scents or drastic pills,
'Tis from the stomach that it takes its rise
Tone with the BITTERS, and the anguish flies.

WANT OF APPETITE.

Without due nourishment life's pulses wane,
The blood grows thin and dullness clouds the brain,
But this Elixir sets the system right,
And "Good Digestion waits on Appetite"

THE BITTERS AFTER SICKNESS.

Exhausting fever leaves its victim low,
And, unassisted, Health's return is slow,
Then with the Bitters weakened Nature aid,
For in each drop vitality's conveyed

AS A GENERAL PREVENTIVE.

By night and day, on river, sea or land,
In instant peril of disease we stand,
But its dread arrows harmless seem to glide
Past all with this invigorant fortified.

IMPURE WATER, ETC.

Roam through the world, through every climate range,
Here is the antidote 'gainst every change,
Water impure it tempers and inures
Men in all hardships to all temperatures

SEA SICKNESS

Who has not felt how feebly words essay
The qualms one feels on shipboard to portray?
Dread them no more, defy old Neptune's power,
The Bitters cure the nausea in an hour.

AN UNADULTERATED TONIC

Of all the liquors borne across the sea
Not one—mark that—from acrid poison's free,
The Bitters stand mid stimulants alone
Powerless to irritate, though prompt to tone

A MILD APERIENT

Remember too aperient root and herb,
Are blent with those that relaxation curb
In this rare mixture, give this fact due weight,
That while the Bitters tone they regulate.

A GENTLE CORRECTIVE

If on the stomach food to acid turns
And pungent gas the inner membrane burns,
This grand corrective soon removes the bane,
And from the heartburn frees the inner man

A SAFE AND GENTLE ANODYNE

Why [illegible] with all the [illegible] dispense,
That [illegible] the nerves and paralyze the sense,
When the [illegible] BITTERS soothe both mind and frame
Inviting both to yield to slumbers claim?

THE WORLD'S OPINION

Touching the BITTERS, this grand fact is clear,
Their fame fills all the Western Hemisphere
Known in all lands washed by its oceans twain,
HEALTH HOPE and VIGOR follow in their train!

AVOID COUNTERFEITS

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS share the common fate
Of all things good Impostors imitate,
Of these beware Discreetly use your eyes,
From honest houses purchase your supplies.

CAUTION!
The Government Endorsement.

In order to guard against the impositions the public are requested to take especial note of the beautifully engraved proprietary stamp through which the Government of the United States officially authenticates every bottle of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS This should thrown by the Government over the proprietors and the public for their joint protection is placed conspicuously across the cork and over the neck of each bottle and cannot fail to strike the eye of the most careless observer Nothing that purports to be HOSTETTER'S BITTERS can be genuine unless the stamp is there

It is also proper to state that the BITTERS are sold exclusively [illegible] and never under any circumstance by the gallon or the barrel [illegible] and [illegible] are about [illegible] the only safeguard the public have against them is to see that the Bitters they buy bear the engraved label and [illegible] of Messrs HOSTETTER & SMITH and the stamp above mentioned
